Course Goals: Student teaching is designed a) to provide you with an intense opportunity to practice using the knowledge and skills you bring with you to the experience and b) to cultivate your ability to continually develop more knowledge and skills as you examine your own practices and how effective they are in helping your students to learn and develop into educated people. Along with the field placements, there are seminars designed to provide an opportunity to share information with other student teachers and to reflect upon pertinent issues.

STUDENT TEACHING
The Program Outcomes of the PVAMU-WRG COE Student Teaching Program is to create a culminating experience for Education majors that will bring together a student's experiences as an individual and as a learner so that the student can move into the profession of teaching with the following characteristics:
Course Objectives:

- Prepare candidates for the teaching profession who are problem solvers, critical thinkers and decision makers.
- Prepare candidates for the teaching profession who understand and appreciate human diversity and global awareness.
- Prepare candidates for the teaching profession who are reflective and continual learners.
- Prepare candidates for the teaching profession who facilitate student growth and development.

Course Objectives/Accrediting Body: NCATE Standards Met: CAEP, SBEC and TExES

At the end of this course, candidates are prepared to work in schools as teachers or other school professionals know and demonstrate the content knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge and skills, pedagogical and professional knowledge and skills, and professional dispositions necessary to help all students learn. Assessments indicate that candidates meet professional, state, and institutional standards.

Upon completion of this course, candidates will be able to demonstrate an understanding of:

Electronic Data Collection System

Prairie View A&M University selected eCourses as an electronic data collection system for assessment purposes. 10 assignments will be considered an "artifact" (an item of coursework that serves as evidence that course objectives are met) and will be loaded into both ECourses and the electronic system. The assignment(s) to be used are artifacts that will be identified by your instructor.

Candidates are required to complete an electronic portfolio (e-portfolio) in order to complete their program. This document can be used for future employment and/or educational endeavors. More information will be provided during the semester.

Requirements:

- Read and use Student Teaching Handbook, Texas Teacher Educator Code and all required readings;
- Take official TExES Exams;
- Official documentation of 35 hours of mandatory TExES preparation;
- Read and use Texas Learning Results: Preface; Terminology; Guiding Principles; and subject Area sections Grades 4-8 and Grades 9-12;
- Read and use Standards for Initial Certification;
- Successful completion of two eight week placements, including the following:
  - Keep a reflective journal, with at least three significant entries per week, ready for me to see. Comment on experiences and observations that may relate to your professional growth. Entries may serve as a tool for collecting information to be used in completing seminar assignments or to document meeting specific standards.
  - Keep a plan book and assessment/evaluation records ready for me to see (use format of school);
  - Schedule a minimum of 4 observations per placement.
• Complete formal lesson plans for these observations
• Complete a Teacher Work Sample
• Attend the ATE Pre-Service Teacher Conference and/or Pre-Service experience selected by Dr. Smith.
• Attend Whitlowe R. Green College of Education Job Fair and/or HATC Conference.
• All written assignments are to be typed, proofread, and presented in a professional manner.

Course Procedures

Formatting Documents:
Microsoft Word is the standard word processing tool used at PVAMU. If you’re using other word processors, be sure to use the “save as” tool and save the document in either the Microsoft Word, Rich-Text, or plain text format.

Exam Policy
Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except under documented emergencies (See Student Handbook).

Attendance:
Your attendance at staff meetings, parent meetings, teacher in-service or workshops, open house, etc. is expected. You are expected to be on time, with all assignments ready, for all seminars. If you are going to be absent from your student teaching assignment due to illness, family emergency, etc., call me at my home by 7:00 am. In addition, be sure to notify your cooperating teacher before school begins and be certain to provide your lesson plans and materials for the cooperating teacher. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student’s course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of “F”. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of placement. All missed days are required to be made up prior to graduation.

University Rules and Procedures

Disability statement (See Student Handbook):
Students with disabilities, including learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in class, should register with the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal laws, a student requesting special accommodations must provide documentation of their disability to the SSD coordinator.

Academic misconduct (See Student Handbook):
You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.

Forms of academic dishonesty:

Cheating: deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations.
Academic misconduct: tampering with grades or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of a scheduled test.

Fabrication: use of invented information or falsified research.

Plagiarism: unacknowledged quotation and/or paraphrase of someone else’s words, ideas, or data as one’s own in work submitted for credit. Failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting them as one’s own work also constitutes plagiarism.

Nonacademic misconduct (See Student Handbook):
The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class, (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Vice President of Student Affairs under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual misconduct (See Student Handbook):
Sexual harassment of students and employers at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Attendance Policy:
Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Excessive absences will result in lowered grades. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student’s course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of “F”. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class.

Student Academic Appeals Process
Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor’s assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.
Prairie View A&M University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its programs and activities. The following person(s) has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies:
