

2024 African-American History Month Lecture and Culture Series

ART AS ACTIVISM LECTURE

STILL HERE:

ARTS. SOCIAL SCULPTURE. COMMUNITY.

Reviving 3rd, 4th, and 5th Wards
in the Shadows of Gentrification

THURSDAY | FEB. 22, 2024 | 1PM

Nathelyne Archie Kennedy Building
Samuel Metters Auditorium

Panelists Include:

Danielle Burns Wilson, Executive Director of Project Row Houses

Mich Stevenson, Houston-based Artist and Entrepreneur, Project Manager for Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy and the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston

Harrison Guy, Founder of Urban Souls Dance Company and Director of Arts & Culture Fifth Ward Community Redevelopment Corporation and DeLUXE Theater

Charonda Johnson, Engagement Manager for Houston Freedmen's Town Conservancy with the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston, Vice President of both Houston Freedmen's Town Association and Preservation Coalition and President of the Fourth Ward Health and Educational Center

