	07.200.30	Clinical Laboratory Records and Materials.	AV		No records will be destroyed in the time shorter than required by regulation. The College of American Pathologists recommends that most laboratory records and materials be retained for 5 to 10 years at the minimum with records retained for a longer period of time when such would be appropriate for patient care, education or quality improvements needs. This record series includes materials such as wet tissue, paraffin blocks, slides, whole dried blood, frozen tissue, serum/CFS/body fluids, donor and recipient records, gross photographs, reports, etc., for surgical pathology, cytology, non- forensic autopsy records, forensic autopsy records, clinical pathology records, cytogenetic records, blood bank, general laboratory and other diagnostic tests. SEE the Laboratory Accreditation Newsletter published in March 2001, available electronically at http://www.cap.org , for specific recommendations on retention of various materials and records.
