

Moving Day

Greetings!
Today is the day!

This is the third email in our series. We hope you have found them helpful. After winter break, we will be sending additional emails about everything you now have access to as part of Office 365.

Here is the series so far for your reference:

- Project Announcement
- Downsizing Your Files & Changes to Your Email Address

Don't forget to download and set up your DUO app so you can access your new Office 365 email account.

You will not be able to use your PVAMU student email until the move is complete.

Don't forget the quick guide on how to configure your mobile device, you can visit our O365 website for the iPhone and Android instructions.

Thanks for your support and cooperation.
