Student Attendance Guidelines Fall 2025

Full-Term and 1st 8-Week Session

- 1. Federal regulations require that financial aid students attend each of their classes.
- 2. Financial aid eligibility is established only if you actually attend your classes.
- 3. Attendance in class is documented and reported by your professor.
- 4. Students reported for non-attendance in any or all of their classes could have their financial aid reduced or canceled.
- Attendance is taken during the beginning of the semester and must be documented by your active
- 5. online participation with your instructors via eCourses.

- 7. You will be dropped from each class that you have failed to attend.
- 8. If you will not be able to attend your classes during the first week of the semester, please contact your professor.

