What is a ProRanger?

ProRanger is a college program that prepares students for a career in the National Park Service as U.S. Park Rangers. Begin your training while you attend classes towards your current degree.

Learn more about the current application to the ProRanger Program, federal employment, careers, and opportunities in the NPS!

Feature Speakers:

Sheila Casey: National Park Service Intermountain Region Human Resource Specialist

Roosevelt Wilson: National Park Service Intermountain Region Equal Opportunity Employment Officer

We will be meeting with interested students on:

Thursday
November 10, 2016 at
4:00pm
Agriculture and Business
Building in room 214
