Coleman Library Rm 209 The Writing Center's goal is to provide a friendly, stress-free environment for students from all over campus to meet with a consultant and talk about writing of all types. They provide a responsive audience and advice from experienced writers in sessions generally lasting thirty to forty-five minutes. Sessions of this length offer time to work individually with students on any aspect of the writing process: from brain storming and drafting, to revising and proofreading. They will explore ways to improve a student's overall writing skills. They do NOT proofread or edit for students, but instead teach proofreading and editing techniques. Their goal is to: make a better writer for the long term. Course Goals and Overview:

This is a semester intensive study of the visual arts meant to introduce you to basic concepts, theories, methods, techniques, and histories in art. The first half of the course will focus on the definition of art, themes, elements, principles, two-dimensional media, and three-dimensional media. The second half will cover art history from prehistoric to contemporary art. The goal of the course is to help the student develop an appreciation for the Visual Arts and strengthen the student's critical thinking skills through an exploration of artistic themes, context and meaning, and iconography.

Submission of Assignments:	All assignments will be posted on eCourses. All work is to be turned in BEFORE or on the due date during class via Connect Art. Be mindful of all due dates. You will not be reminded when work is due. NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. Do not beg for extra credit particularly at the end of the semester because none will be assigned. It is your responsibility to make sure that you can access the Connect Art Course Page. No exceptions will be made.
Formatting Documents:	Microsoft Word is the standard word processing tool used at PVAMU. If you're using other word processors, be sure to use the "save as" tool and save the document in either Rich-Text or plain text format. THE ONLY FILE FORMATS THAT WILL BE ACCEPTED ARE: Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), Text files (.txt or .rtf), PDFs, and PowerPoint (when required). Any file not submitted in those formats with the correct file name WILL NOT BE GRADED. All file names must include your last name, underscore, first initial, underscore and title of the assignment. For example, for the first assignment: Moore_T_Frida.doc. ANY FILE NOT SAVED IN THE CORRECT MANNER WILL NOT BE GRADED.
Exam Policy:	Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except under documented emergencies (See Student Handbook). There is no make-up for the final.
University Rules ar
Disability Statement (See Student Handbook):	Students with disabilities, including learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in class should register with the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal laws, a student requesting special accommodations must provide documentation of their disability to the SSD coordinator. Students should also inform the instructor of their need for accommodations immediately at the outset of the course so that a solution designed to being successful in class can be produced.
Academic Misconduct (See Student Handbook):	You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.
Forms Of Academic Dishonesty:	 Cheating: deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on ar academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. Academic misconduct: tampering with grades or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of a scheduled test. Fabrication: use of invented information or falsified research. Plagiarism: unacknowledged quotation and/or paraphrase of someone else's words, ideas, or data as one's own in work submitted for credit. Failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting them as one's own work also constitutes plagiarism.
Nonacademic Misconduct (See Student Handbook) Sexual misconduct (See Student Handbook):	The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either: (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class; (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students under nonacademic procedures. Sexual harassment of students and employers at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.
Student Academic Appeals Process	Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.

Don' take your class and Course work for Granted

- 1. If you fail to attend class, you will fail the class.
- 2. Arts 1203 is not an Online course.
- 3. Meeting with the instructor does not replace class attendance.

- 4. Interaction with classmates is required. All concerns do not have to be brought to the instructor.
- 5. Excused/Unexcused absentees do not eliminate accountability (class work/attendance, etc).
- 6. Late work does not have to be accepted.
- 7. Face to face communication is primary, emails are secondary.
- 8. Extra credit is not an option; therefore, complete initial assignments.
- 9. Deadlines are deadlines; meet them.
