Instruction Method: Face-to-Face (F2F)

Face-to-face courses are traditional courses where students and instructors are required to meet in a designated classroom at the same time according to the meeting date and time published in PantherTracks. At PVAMU, F2F courses are identified by a three-character section number that starts with the letter P (for example: P01), M, or N depending on which campus the course resides.

Required Readings:

Course Description:

This course will introduce students to the history of the United States from the end Reconstruction to the present. Through lectures, course readings and discussions, students will gain an understanding of the major social, economic, and political developments that helped shape American history during this era. We will examine western expansion, imperialism and industrialization, Progressivism, WWI, the Great Depression and the New Deal, WWII, Cold War America, and other key periods and events. By engaging multiple historical narratives, students will also develop a greater understanding of U.S. domestic and foreign policies. Students will be evaluated by attendance, participation, examinations and writing assignments.

Course Outcomes/Objectives:

By the end of this course, the student will...

- 1.) Learn basic facts about the major themes and concepts of American history;
- 2.) Be better able to think critically, recognize change over time, and demonstrate an understanding of how actions have consequences;
- 3.) Relate present-day issues and experiences to those of the past, in order to provide a better basis for personal responsibilities, appreciating challenges, and possibilities of contemporary times;
- 4.) Supplement knowledge of sources and methods of learning American history;
- 5.) Develop global perspective and social responsibility by recognizing and remaking upon relationships between domestic and foreign affairs.

Course Requirements & Evaluation Methods:

This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for this course.

- Exams (4) [Worth 100 pts. each = 400 total points]

There are four in-class examinations consisting of objective and short answer questions. These exams are not cumulative, but rather focus on the materials covered since the previous exam. The first three exams will take place during the regular semester and the fourth exam will take place during the final examination period. The final exam is mandatory.

Exam #1 – THURSDAY, 2/8

Exam #2 – THURSDAY, 3/7

Exam #3 – THURSDAY, 4/4

Exam #4 (Final) – TBA

- Article review (1) [Worth 50 pts.]

Students will write one article précis or review that will be handed in electronically via the Turn-it-in function in eCourses. Each student is responsible for completing one, 2-3 page article review during the course of the semester. The article review should be double spaced, 550-750 words, in 12 pt., Times New Roman font. Additionally, the review should summarize the scope, thesis, and content of the text as well as any theoretical or methodological concerns present in the work. The review should also be critical and include an analysis of how well the article highlights or resolves issues of significance discussed in class. Detailed instructions will be provided in class.

Article Review Due – THURS., 4/21 @ 11:59 p.m. (CST).

- Primary Source Analysis (5) [Worth 10 pts. each = 50 pts total]

Instructions: For this assignment, you will learn to identify significant facts and generate questions about primary sources. A primary source is a first-hand or contemporary account of an event or topic. They are the most direct evidence of a time or event because they were created by people or things that were there at the time or event. Letters, diaries, minutes, photographs, artifacts, interviews, and sound or video recordings are examples of primary sources created as a time or event is occurring. Oral histories, newspaper or journal articles, and memoirs or autobiographies are examples of primary sources created after the event or time in question but offering first-hand accounts. After reviewing the primary source, you will give a substantive response to a series of questions designed to help you think critically about the artifact. Your response should be between 250 and 350 words.

- Classroom attendance, decorum, and participation

Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attendance will be recorded for each class session. Each student is allowed only three (3) total absences (unexcused). Students who miss more than three classes will see a fifty (50) point deduction in their attendance and participation grade. Students who are quarantining due to COVID-19 related illnesses or exposure must not attend in-person class sessions. Students who are feeling sick should follow the guidelines of PVAMU's COVID guidelines posted at www.pvamu.edu/coronavirus.

In addition, students who routinely disrupt class through talking, texting, or sleeping during class will receive a warning. If such behavior continues, the student will be asked to leave class and referred to the Dean's Office. Each student is expected to respect themselves, the instructor, and the other students in the class. NO FOOD OR DRINKS ALLOWED IN CLASS. Student initiated video and audio recording of class lectures (either on Zoom or in person) is strictly prohibited without the written consent of the instructor. Students who use laptops during face-to-face instruction must sit in the first two rows of class.

How to succeed in this course:

Regular class attendance, good note-taking during lectures and discussions, and completing the course reading prior to coming to class are your best tools for success in this course. Course lectures will cover a significant amount of information not in your texts and other reading assignments, so you need to pay close attention during lecture beyond simply copying the slides. If you should miss class, it will be your responsibility to obtain notes from a fellow student. I do not email or share lecture notes. You can always come to office hours to go over missed material.

Ways students can compromise their success in this course:

- Not recognizing that their grade in this course is determined by their performance
- Failing to attend class
- Having others sign them in when they are not present in class
- Surfing the internet or texting in class
- Not turning in assignments/missing exams
- Plagiarizing assignments
- Failing to discuss course/assignment issues with the instructor in a prompt manner
- Only taking this course seriously after midterms

Grading Matrix

Formatting Documents: Microsoft Word is the standard word processing tool used at PVAMU. If you are using other word processors, be sure to use the “save as” option and save the document in either Microsoft Word, Rich-Text, or plain text format.

Exam Policy: Exams must be taken as scheduled and students must arrive on-time to take exams. No makeup examinations will be allowed except under documented medical emergencies or university related business (see Student Handbook). It is a student’s responsibility to schedule any makeup examinations with the instructor. If a student misses the scheduled make-up exam date, they will receive a “0” for that exam. All make-ups must be completed within two weeks of the original exam.

Exam Etiquette: All students are expected to be on time during the date of any assigned quiz or examination. Students arriving more than ten (10) minutes late for exams delivered face-to-face will not be permitted to take or “make-up” missed examinations. Similarly, any student who leaves their seat during an examination, for any reason, will be deemed to have completed the exam.

Paper Policy: Papers not received by the appropriate due date and time will be downgraded by five points for every day late. No paper will be accepted more than 48 hours past the due date. No exceptions.

University Rules and Procedures

Academic Misconduct

Academic dishonesty is defined as any form of cheating or dishonesty that has the effect or intent of interfering with any academic exercise or fair evaluation of a student's performance. The college faculty can provide additional information, particularly related to a specific course, laboratory, or assignment.

You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with the University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity, which can be found on the Academic Integrity webpage. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures. As listed in the University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity, the University Online Catalog, and the Student Code of Conduct, the following are examples of prohibited conduct. This list is not designed to be all-inclusive or exhaustive. In addition to academic sanctions, any student found to have committed academic misconduct that is also a violation of criminal law may also be subject to disciplinary review and action by the Office of Student Conduct (as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct).

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:

1. Cheating: Deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not learned, giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. Examples: unauthorized use of notes for a test; using a "cheat sheet" on a quiz or exam; any alteration made on a graded test or exam which is then resubmitted to the teacher;
2. Plagiarism: Careless or deliberate use of the work or the ideas of another; representation of another's work, words, ideas, or data as your own without permission or appropriate acknowledgment. Examples: copying another's paper or answers, failure to identify information or essays from the internet and submitting or representing it as your own; submitting an assignment which has been partially or wholly done by another and claiming it as yours; not properly acknowledging a source which has been summarized or paraphrased in your work; failure to acknowledge the use of another's words with quotation marks;

3. Collusion: When more than one student or person contributes to a piece of work that is submitted as the work of an individual;
4. Conspiracy: Agreeing with one or more persons to commit an act of academic/scholastic dishonesty; and
5. Multiple Submission: Submission of work from one course to satisfy a requirement in another course without explicit permission. Example: using a paper prepared and graded for credit in one course to fulfill a requirement and receive credit in a different course.

PVAMU's General Statement on the Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence Tools in the Classroom

Generative Artificial Intelligence (GAI), specifically foundational models that can create writing, computer code, and/or images using minimal human prompting, are increasingly becoming pervasive. Even though ChatGPT is one of the most well-known GAIs currently available, this statement includes any and all past, current, and future generations of GAI software. Prairie View A&M University expects that all work produced for a grade in any course, be it face-to-face or virtual, will be the sole product of a student's endeavors to meet those academic goals. However, should an instructor permit their students to use artificial intelligence as a resource or tool, students must not substitute the substance of their original work with the results of using such GAI tools. This clearly violates the University's Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity and its underlying academic values.

Nonacademic Misconduct

The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, (2) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. The Office of Student Conduct will adjudicate such incidents under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct

Sexual harassment of students and employees at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating the university's sexual harassment policy will be subject to disciplinary action. In accordance with the Texas A&M University System guidelines, your instructor is obligated to report to the Office of Title IX Compliance (titleixteam@pvamu.edu) any instance of sexual misconduct involving a student, which includes sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, and sexual harassment, about which the instructor becomes aware during this course through writing, discussion, or personal disclosure. The faculty and staff of PVAMU actively strive to provide a learning, working, and living environment that promotes respect that is free from sexual misconduct, discrimination, and all forms of violence. If students, faculty, or staff would like assistance or have questions, they may contact the Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Zakiya Brown, at 936-261-2144 or titleixteam@pvamu.edu. More information can be found at Title XI Website, including confidential resources available on campus.

United States History II – (1876 to Present) Spring 2024

Protections and Accommodations for Pregnant and Parenting Students

The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) enforces, among other statutes, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Title IX protects people from discrimination based on sex, sexual orientation, and gender identity in education programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance. This protection includes those who may be pregnant and parenting. Title IX states: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." Students seeking accommodations related to pregnancy or parenting should contact the Office of Title IX for information, resources, and support at titleixteam@pvamu.edu. Additional information and/or support may be provided by the Office of Disability Services or the Office of the Dean of Students.

Non-Discrimination Statement

Prairie View A&M University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity in its programs and activities. The University is committed to supporting students and complying with The Texas A&M University System non-discrimination policy. It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of discrimination or harassment, we encourage you to report it. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Director of Equal Opportunity & Diversity has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies and can be reached at Harrington Science Building, Suite 109, or by phone at 936-261-1744 or 1792.

Class Attendance Policy (See the University Online Catalog for Full Attendance Policy)

Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attending all classes supports the full academic development of each learner, whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video and/or the Internet. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student's course grade being reduced or in the assignment of a grade of "F." Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms. Each faculty member will include the University's attendance policy in each course syllabus.

Makeup Work for Legitimate Absences

Prairie View A&M University recognizes that there are a variety of legitimate circumstances in which students will miss coursework and that accommodations for makeup work will be made. If a student's absence is excused, the instructor must either provide the student an opportunity to make up any quiz, exam, or other work contributing to the final grade or provide a satisfactory alternative by a date agreed upon by the student and instructor. Students are encouraged to work with instructors to complete makeup work before known scheduled absences (University-sponsored events, administrative proceedings, etc.). Students are responsible for planning their schedules to avoid excessive conflicts with course requirements.

Absence Verification Process

All non-athletic absences (e.g., Medical, Death/Funeral, Court/Legal-related, etc.) for which a student seeks to obtain a valid excuse must be submitted to the Dean of Students/Office of Student Conduct, with supporting documentation, for review and verification. Please use the Online Reporting Forms to access/complete/submit the Request for a University Excused Absence form for an excuse. Upon receipt, a staff member will verify the documentation and provide an official university excuse, if applicable. The student is responsible for providing the official university excuse issued by the Office for Student Conduct to the professor(s). Questions should be directed to the Dean of Students via email:

deanofstudents@pvamu.edu or phone: (936) 261-3550 or Office for Student Conduct via email: studentconduct@pvamu.edu or phone: (936) 261-3524.

Student Academic Appeals Process

Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rest with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the University Online Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.

Communication Expectations and Standards

Emails or discussion postings will receive a response from the instructor, usually in less than 48 hours. Urgent emails should be marked as such. Check regularly for responses.

Discussion Requirement

Online courses often require minimal to no face-to-face meetings. However, conversations about the readings, lectures, materials, and other aspects of the course can occur in a seminar fashion. The use of the discussion board will accomplish this. The instructor will determine the exact use of discussion boards.

It is strongly suggested that students type their discussion postings in a word processing application such as Word and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) If for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, copy and paste to the discussion board.

COVID-19 Campus Safety Measures

In accordance with the latest guidelines from the PVAMU Health Services, the following measures are in effect until further notice.

- Students who are ill will be asked to adhere to best practices in public health, such as masking, handwashing, and social distancing, to help reduce the spread of illness across campus.
- Mandatory self-reporting will no longer be required by students. Students will be responsible for communicating with their professors regarding COVID, similarly to any other illness.
- There will be no mandatory isolation. Students who are too ill to engage in classroom activities will be responsible for securing the appropriate documentation to support the absence.
- Students who self-isolate will be responsible for communicating with their professors and securing an excuse from Student Conduct.
- All students will have access to TimelyCare, a telehealth platform that provides virtual medical care 24/7 and by appointment in the Student Health Clinic. Students are encouraged to enroll with TimelyCare at the beginning of the semester, at timelycare.com/pvamu.
- Students will have access to COVID testing in the Student Health Clinic by appointment. Testing is for students who are symptomatic ONLY.
