Course Description

MSL 3332 course is driven by the Professional Competency ALA. This includes, introduction to squad/platoon tactical operations using troop leading procedures and battle drills to achieve the assigned mission within the commander’s intent. Through the introduction of the Leadership Lab Practicum the cadets learn to plan, resource, and execute training of subordinates within the Leadership Labs. This experience gives the Cadet the opportunity to work on their teamwork and leadership skills in a hands on performance-oriented environment.

The focus is on exploring, evaluating, and developing skills in decision-making, persuading, and motivating team members in the contemporary operating environment (COE). MSL 302 cadets are evaluated on what they know and do as leaders as they prepare to attend the Cadet Summer Training (CST) Advanced Camp

Course Design
This course is designed to be student-centric with the onus of learning on the student, facilitated by the instructor. Army Officers are expected to be life-long learners who take responsibility and personal initiative for their learning. You must properly conduct your pre-class assignments to gain an understanding of the foundation on each subject in the course. Doing so will allow your instructor to spend most of the class time on specific areas that are least understood from the lessons, rather than your instructor teaching the subject from scratch. Your instructor has a wealth of experience and knowledge to share in the classroom—do your homework so your instructor can spend more time sharing his personal knowledge and experiences with your class. Class will be conducted in an interactive manner with many opportunities for small group discussions and practical exercises. Everyone will be responsible for contributing to the success of the learning experience.

ROTC Advanced Course
The Advanced Course is comprised of an academically rigorous 2-year program consisting of; four college courses with two Exams (Midterm/Final) per course, two sets of Leadership LABs (Fall/Spring), and the Cadet Summer Training (CST) Advanced Camp conducted during the summer in-between the MS III and MS IV years at Fort Knox, KY.

- MS 300, Leadership Skills and Small Unit Tactics
- Fall Leadership Labs
- Spring Leadership Labs
- CST Advanced Camp Fort Knox, KY
- MS 400, Leadership Management I & II
- Fall Leadership Labs
- Spring Leadership Labs

The four ALAs and General Learning Outcomes are:

1. Leadership and the Army Profession
   - Proficiency in creating and sustaining an organizational climate of trust and a shared identity as Army Professionals
   - Proficiency in the Army leader attribute and competency categories described in the Leadership Requirements Model
   - Proficiency in implementing and sustaining the fundamentals of development

Ensure that you proof your e-mail for spelling and grammatical errors. Many e-mails applications offer editing; however, you can copy the information into a word document and Closing - The most common way to close an e-mail is with a word or statement, such as “Sincerely,” “Respectfully,” or “With Regards.” It is important to create an e-mail signature and to include that signature with every message you send. NOTE: Listed below are several additional methods used to assess knowledge and learning that the instructor may choose to implement as course requirements and evaluation.

Character Development / Classroom Conduct

Each Cadet is responsible and expected to attain (know and do) the respective requirements for each MS Level. You are expected to carry yourself as a leader in the U.S. Army and live up to the Army Values to the best of your ability. All Army ROTC Cadets/students will adhere to the Prairie View A&M University Academic Integrity Policy. Please see link below:
Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty is defined as any form of cheating or dishonesty that has the effect or intent of interfering with any academic exercise or fair evaluation of a student's performance. The college faculty can provide additional information, particularly related to a specific course, laboratory, or assignment.

You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with the University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity, which can be found on the Academic Integrity webpage. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures. As listed in the University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity, the University Online Catalog, and the Student Code of Conduct, the following are examples of prohibited conduct. This list is not designed to be all-inclusive or exhaustive. In addition to academic sanctions, any student found to have committed academic misconduct that is also a violation of criminal law may also be subject to disciplinary review and action by the Office of Student Conduct (as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct).

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:

1. Cheating: Deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not learned, giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. Examples: unauthorized use of notes for a test; using a "cheat sheet" on a quiz or exam; any alteration made on a graded test or exam which is then resubmitted to the teacher;

2. Plagiarism: Careless or deliberate use of the work or the ideas of another; representation of another's work, words, ideas, or data as your own without permission or appropriate acknowledgment. Examples: copying another's paper or answers, failure to identify information or essays from the internet and submitting or representing it as your own; submitting an assignment which has been partially or wholly done by another and claiming it as yours; not properly acknowledging a source which has been summarized or paraphrased in your work; failure to acknowledge the use of another's words with quotation marks;

3. Collusion: When more than one student or person contributes to a piece of work that is submitted as the work of an individual;

4. Conspiracy: Agreeing with one or more persons to commit an act of academic/scholastic dishonesty; and

Multiple Submission: Submission of work from one course to satisfy a requirement in another course without explicit permission. Example: using a paper prepared and graded for credit in one course to fulfill a requirement and receive credit in a different course

Uniforms and Appearance

You are expected to wear the assigned Army uniform to all classes per cadre guidance and adhere to Army Regulation 670-1 Wear and Appearance of Uniforms and Insignia and associated ALARACT messages regarding uniforms and appearance.

Collaboration

You are encouraged to work together with your fellow MS III3 Cadets and seek guidance and help from your instructor and other ROTC cadre.

Student Conduct Policy

PVAMU students are expected to abide by the Prairie View A&M University’s Code of Sexual Misconduct Policy
In accordance with the PVAMU's Sexual Misconduct Policy, your instructor is a “responsible employee” for reporting purposes under Title IX regulations and state law and must report incidents of sexual misconduct (sexual harassment, non-consensual sexual contact, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, sexual intimidation, intimate partner violence, or stalking) about which they become aware to the Title IX office. Please know there are places on campus where you can make a report in confidence. More information can be found on the Title IX website at https://www.pvamu.edu/titleix/sexual-misconduct-policy/

Sexual Harassment/Assault
Across the Total Army, we continue to focus on eradicating sexual harassment and sexual assault from our ranks. We must do everything within our power to rid the Army of these crimes. This is a readiness issue that affects our ability to accomplish our mission. Over the past several years, we have placed a high priority on our prevention efforts, and although we are on the right trajectory, we still have significant room to improve. In all components, sexual assault reporting is increasing, which is an indication that our Soldiers trust their leaders to address the situation in a professional manner. We all have a responsibility to look out for one another - there can be no bystanders. Stay alert when the warning signs become present, and if you see something, ACT! Leaders and Soldiers have an ethical obligation to intervene to stop sexual harassment and sexual assault from happening. Those who do not, violate the Nation's trust and the trust of their peers.

Title IX
Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 is a federal law that states: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Inappropriate Relationships
Per Army Directive 2016-17 (Protecting Against Prohibited Relations During Recruiting and Entry-Level Training and IAW Department of Defense Instructions (DoDI) 1304.33 (Protecting Against Inappropriate Relations During Recruiting and Entry Level Training). The Army and all Army personnel (including any Army military, civilian, or contractor personnel) will treat each prospect, applicant, recruit, and trainee with dignity and respect as they pursue their aspiration of serving in the military. Army policy prohibits inappropriate relations between recruiters and prospects, applicants, and/or recruits and between trainers providing entry-level training and trainees. At a minimum and as required, the prospect, applicant, recruit, trainee, recruiter, or trainer will complete the following administrative actions. Commanders may add requirements to this list.

(1) Trainers providing entry-level training will sign a DD Form 2982 that acknowledges their understanding of the prohibitions listed in paragraph 5d and their responsibilities regarding the policies to avoid the inappropriate behaviors and relations outlined in this directive. The DD Form 2982 will be recertified annually. The form will be locally filed and kept for 1 year after the trainer has left the unit.

(2) At the onset of the first training session, trainers will brief trainees on the policies in this directive and provide information that trainees can use to contact someone in leadership if they wish to report any issue related to a trainer’s inappropriate conduct.

(3) Trainees will sign a DD Form 2983 to acknowledge their understanding and responsibilities as outlined in this directive no later than the first day of entry-level training. The DD Form 2983 will be locally filed and kept until 6 months after the trainee has left the unit.

NOTE: See ROTC Blackboard BOLC A Curriculum and Course Materials (Protecting Against Inappropriate Relations) for Army Directive 2016-17 and DoDI 1304.33 and Policy Letter materials.

On-line Conduct
The Army is a values-based organization where everyone is expected to do what is right by treating all persons as they should be treated—with dignity and respect. Army personnel are expected to treat all people with respect in all aspects of life and forms of communication (for example, online or in person). Furthermore, Army personnel, especially those entrusted with the mantle of leadership, will lead by example and do what is right to prevent abusive treatment of others.

Failure to do so brings discredit on the Army and may have strategic implications. Hazing, bullying, and discriminatory harassment of people or their property is prohibited; allegations of harassment will be addressed swiftly, individually, and considering their circumstances. Hazing, bullying, online misconduct, and other acts of misconduct, undermine trust, violate our ethic, and negatively impact command climate and readiness.

For more information please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, 24 July 2020, Chapter 4, paragraph 4-19.
