Course Evaluation Methods:
This course will utilize the following instruments to determine grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course:
1. Exams (Four exams each worth 100 points; 50% of the course grade; for dates see Summer 5 Week Calendar At a Glance)

All exams will be 50 questions. The questions include multiple-choice, true/false, definition, short answer and/or very short essay items. Suggestion: do not miss any of the exams! Make-ups will be given ONLY with a documented emergency (e.g., death of someone close, hospitalization of oneself or one’s child, or a spouse (near death). In those cases, the exam will be all essay questions (long & short), a few fill in the blanks and definitions.

Exams will be online. Exams will be based on the text, supplemental readings and videos, lecture information, and any other materials provided.

Exams will be online and will be monitored online. Exams will open on Thursday from Noon to 1:00 pm.

Do not wait until the last minute to take the exam. No extensions will be given to complete exams. Extenuating circumstances must be documented, and if accepted, this can only happen once during the semester. Read the section on Technical Considerations Minimum Recommended Hardware and Software section towards the end of this syllabus:

A NOTE ON EXAM DAYS:
- Exams will be remotely proctored.
- All technology (cell phones, earbuds, apple watches, calculators, etc.), hats, water bottles, drinks, and personal items, are to be put in a book bag or purse, away from you or your desk/table; once the test begins you cannot look for things inside it until you finish and turn in your exam;
- Nothing should be on your desk.
- In cases where the honor system is not observed, the situation will be brought up to the Dean of Students (in writing). I will ask the Dean to keep a copy of the letter in the files of all the students involved until they graduate (Note: employers do check school records!).
- Any other items will be announced on exam day.

NOTE: ONLY ONE EXAM CAN BE MADE-UP. See exam dates below (Summer Weekly calendar), missed exam will be at the end of the semester, and it will be an all essay examination) and needs documentation, see above.

2. Forum: Reflection Essays (5 essays, each worth 0-3 points; total points 15 points, 25% of course grade.

Each student is required to share (chat/forum format) with the class their reflection essay and respond to at least one other classmate’s response. Each week you will read three chapters, but your essay will be from just one of those chapters. Identify the chapter by writing the title of the chapter in the essay you will share with the class (in the chat/forum).

Each essay should be a minimum of 2 paragraphs; paragraphs are made up of 8-10 sentences. These reflection essays should summarize your learning experience. For each chapter selected answer the following questions in essay form (meaning do not write these numbers!): 1. the topics covered, 2. what was said about the topics, 3. what you learned, 4. what was not clear, 5. what made you think, 6. how it impacted you (future, career, life, family, degree of agreement/disagreement, etc), etc.

You are required to: upload/share your essay before you can respond to a classmate.

Forum will open each Monday at 12:05a.m. and will close on Sunday at 11:50pm.
Do not wait until the last minute to upload and attempt to respond to a classmate. No extensions will be given to turn in reflection essays not completed within the time (you have 6 days to complete the assignment). Because these forums include class participation, deadlines cannot be extended; missed forums cannot be made up and extensions will not be allowed under any circumstance.

Grading Matrix for the Reflection Essays can be found on the last page of this syllabus. Work is due as scheduled on the calendar below. All work submitted and presented should demonstrate thorough preparation, practice and sound thought and should be your own work. Avoid cut-paste (copying) from web sites and other sources, avoid plagiarism and double submission avoid typos and grammatical mistakes by using Grammarly (available on PV website).

3. Quizzes: Weekly Quizzes (5 quizzes, 10 points each; 25% of the grade)

Quizzes will be online. Quizzes will be based on the textbook and lecture power points notes. Each quiz will be made up of 10 multiple choice questions. true/false, and/or matching. Two attempts to complete the quiz are allowed. You have one hour to complete the quiz.

Quizzes will be online and will be monitored. Once you start the quiz you must complete the quiz, but you have two attempts. The highest grade will count. Quizzes will open on Friday at 12:05a.m. and will close on Sunday at 11:50pm.

Do not wait until the last minute to take the quiz. No extensions will be given to complete quizzes because you have three days to complete the assignment. Extenuating circumstances must be documented and if accepted this can only happen once during the semester. Read section on Technical Considerations Minimum Recommended Hardware and Software section towards the end of this syllabus.

In cases where the honor system is not observed, the situation will be brought up to the Dean of Students (in writing). I will ask the Dean to keep a copy of the letter in the files of all the students involved until they graduate (Note: employers do check school records!).

A FINAL NOTE ON the above COURSE EVALUATION METHODS:

- Students are required to check email and ecourse for class announcements and course materials at least once per week.
- Feel free to ask-email questions at any time. Accomplishing this format requires that students keep up with work every day.
- Weekly Quizzes, Essays/Forums and Exams: You are responsible for the material covered. All scheduled work is due as assigned (see Summer 5 Week Calendar At a Glance section below for dates). Because of the nature of the summer semester weekly assignments and quizzes deadlines will not be extended.
- Because points on Forum/Reflection essay and Quizzes are cumulative, missing one Forum or missing one quiz will not affect the overall grade, but missing more than one will!

Course/Classroom Expectations:

Submission of Assignments:
Work is due as scheduled on the calendar below. All work submitted and presented should demonstrate thorough preparation, practice and sound thought and should be your own work. Avoid cut-paste (copying) from web sites and other sources, give credit to your sources (APA style). Avoid plagiarism and double submission.

Attendance:
- Absences (not doing weekly work, falling behind in readings, not doing what you need to do to pass this class) are hereby discouraged. Summer is fast paced and you cannot let anything or anyone get in the way of your success! This includes giving excuses!
- Class attendance will be kept. Each week you have work to complete and it will count as attendance. As you know this is reported, students can be dropped from classes and this will affect financial aid.
- Do not bring excuses for not completing the work. The only excuse I will entertain reading/listening to is for missing a test and only if there was a documented emergency (must have evidence of such an emergency: death announcement, prescribed medication, etc.). You can only make up one exam (exam will be at the end of the semester, the exam will be all essay).
- Please refer to the Undergraduate Catalog section on excused and unexcused absences.

Posting lecture notes on ecourse
- PowerPoint lecture notes for each textbook chapter will be posted on ecourse and students are expected to download and print out these materials from ecourse on a weekly basis. You should have these close to you as you read the textbook.
- You should write your own outline and notes and adding details to the lecture notes. You can also highlight material you think will be relevant for exams. I strongly encourage you to take notes as you read and compare your notes with the lecture notes. It's like taking notes during a face to face class, assume that nobody hears hints and cues like you do and that you are better than others when it comes to identifying what is important to know for a test.
- Power Point lecture notes complement the textbook; these are not substitution for the textbook.

Student responsibility:
- The pursuit of education requires the investment of considerable time and money. Please make the most of your investment in this course. Be serious about your education and make the most of the opportunity.

Civility in the classroom: netiquette
- Students are expected to participate in all discussions and virtual classroom chats as directed. Students are to be respectful and courteous to others on discussions boards. Foul or abusive language will not be tolerated. Students are expected to refrain from exhibiting disruptive, inappropriate, unhealthy behavior in the virtual classroom. Students are asked to show courtesy, respect and support for the instructor and fellow classmates. The forum will be one of respect for every point of view, we are all educated and as a result our points of view should have some valid foundation and frame of reference.
Summer 5 Week Calendar At a Glance: It assumes you will do class related work each day.

University Rules and Procedures

Academic misconduct (See Student Handbook):
You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.

Forms of academic dishonesty:
1. Cheating: deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations.

2. Academic misconduct: tampering with grades or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of a scheduled test.

3. Fabrication: use of invented information or falsified research.
4. Plagiarism: unacknowledged quotation and/or paraphrase of someone else's words, ideas, or data as one's own in work submitted for credit. Failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting them as one's own work also constitutes plagiarism.

Nonacademic misconduct (See Student Handbook)

The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual misconduct (See Student Handbook):

Sexual harassment of students and employers at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Attendance Policy

Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Excessive absences will result in lowered grades. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student's course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of "F". Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class.

Student Academic Appeals Process

Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.

Title IX Statement

Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) is committed to supporting students and complying with the Texas A&M University System non-discrimination policy. It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of sex- or gender-based discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual assault or attempted sexual assault, we encourage you to report it. While you may talk to a faculty member about an incident of misconduct, the faculty member must report the basic facts of your experience to Ms. Alexia Taylor, PVAMU’s Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Title IX Coordinator is designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies and can assist you with understanding your options and connect you with on- and off-campus resources. The Title IX Coordinator can be reached by phone at 936-261-2123 or in Suite 013 in the A.I. Thomas Administration Building.

- 15” monitor, 800x600, color or 16 bit
- Sound card with speakers
- Microphone and recording software
- Keyboard & mouse
Recommended Internet Browsers:
  - Most current version of Google Chrome
  - Most current version of Mozilla Firefox
  - Most current version of Safari
  - Most current version of Adobe Acrobat Reader

Participants should have a basic proficiency of the following computer skills:
  - Sending and receiving email
  - A working knowledge of the Internet
  - Proficiency in Microsoft Word
  - Proficiency in the Acrobat PDF
  - Reader Basic knowledge of Windows or Mac O.S.

Netiquette (online etiquette):
  Students are expected to participate in all discussions and virtual classroom chats as directed. Students are to be respectful and courteous to others on discussions boards. Foul or abusive language will not be tolerated.

Technical Support:
  Students should go to https://mypassword.pvamu.edu/ if they have password issues. The page will provide instructions for resetting passwords and contact information if login issues persist. For other technical questions regarding eCourses, call the Office of Distance Learning at 936-261-3283

Communication Expectations and Standards:
  Emails or discussion postings will receive a response from the instructor, usually in less than 48 hours. Urgent emails should be marked as such. Check regularly for responses.

Discussion Requirement:
  Online courses often require minimal to no face-to-face meetings. However, conversations about the readings, lectures, materials, and other aspects of the course can take place in a seminar fashion. This will be accomplished by the use of the discussion board. The exact use of discussion will be determined by the instructor.

It is strongly suggested that students type their discussion postings in a word processing application and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) If for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, it should be copied and pasted to the discussion board.
What Can I Do With a Major in Criminal Justice?
Criminal Justice professionals prevent and control crime, shield the public from harm, provide detention services and ensure equal justice for all citizens through the judicial system.

Before you begin to look at the different types of opportunities available to Criminal Justice majors, you must look at yourself and ask yourself a few basic questions:
What am I good at? What are your major strengths & weaknesses, what skills do you have or will have by the time you graduate, what are some of your accomplishments (grades, scholarship, awards, sports, music, church, etc). Some examples of skills and qualities employers look for are: Interpersonal, Oral and written communication, Physical fitness, Analytical, Problem solving, Leadership, Assertiveness, Honesty, Good judgment, Decision making

What do I like to do? Examine your interests. What kind of life style do I want to lead? Examine your values...is money what you're after, job security, challenging work?

If you are having trouble answering any or all of these questions, you are not alone. Make an appointment an advisor. We want to help you!

POSITIONS Once you know yourself, you are ready to decide where and how you want to apply this knowledge. With a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice some of the positions you would be eligible for are: Police Officer, Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Agent, Customs Agent, Corrections Officer, Deputy US, Marshal, Postal Service Investigator, Pre-Trial Services Officer, Probation Officer, Parole Officer, Prisoner Classification Interviewer, Credit Investigator, Security Officer, Loss Prevention Specialist, etc...
Experience in the field or an advanced degree could lead to certain positions in the F.B.I., Law, Social work, etc. For information on graduate schools, consult Peterson's.

EMPLOYMENT. At the local, municipal, state and federal criminal justice level. Another is employment in the private sector.

LEARN MORE. To help you decide which area to pursue you must do in-depth research into each area of specialization and/or industry you have an interest in.

Places to begin: Visit web sites of the different agencies that interest you to learn about qualification and openings. Go to Career Center, Do an internship, Talk to your advisor or instructors
