presenting explanations of concepts or methods to help fellow candidates,
+ presenting reasons for or against a topic in a persuasive fashion,
+ sharing your own personal experiences that relate to the topic

The discussions will be graded for:
1. Frequency – Number of your discussion comments and contributions, and
2. Quality – Content of your contributions

Full credit is awarded when both high quality and required frequency is met.

It is strongly suggested that candidates type their discussion postings in a word processing application and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) if for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, it should be copied and pasted to the discussion board.

NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Course Procedures or Additional Instructor Policies

Submission of Assignments:
When applicable, work should be submitted utilizing APA (American Psychological Association) style. All assignments must be typed, double-spaced, multiple pages stapled and must include a title page. Assignments are not to be hole punched until after they have been graded. Do not submit work in folders, sheet protectors or report covers. Points will be deducted for not following directions. In addition, points will be deducted for typographical, grammatical and sentence structure errors. Photocopies of assignments will not be accepted and counted as a missed assignment.

Formatting Documents: Microsoft Word is the standard word processing tool used at PVAMU. If you’re using other word processors, be sure to use the “save as” tool and save the document in either the Microsoft Word, Rich-Text, or plain text format.

Taskstream
Taskstream is a tool that Prairie View A&M University uses for assessment purposes. At least one of your assignments is REQUIRED to be submitted as an “artifact,” an item of coursework that serves as evidence that course objectives are met. More information will be provided during the semester, but for general information, you can visit Taskstream via the link in eCourses.
Attendance Policy (see handout and Student Handbook)
Attendance is required for each class meeting. Attending all classes supports full academic development of each learner whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a candidate’s course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of “F”. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms.

Official university sponsored activities are considered excused absences, but the candidate is responsible for making up all that is missed at the instructor’s convenience. It is recognized that personal difficulties/conflicts arise, and allowances will be considered on an individual basis.

Retention of Assignments and Exams
After the candidate has seen his/her grade, the instructor reserves the right to retain all assignments and examinations completed by the teacher education candidate. Online exams and quizzes answers will not be released until after the assignment has close and they have been complete by all students.

Penalties for Late Assignments
Assignments should be submitted on the scheduled due date. Missed assignments will not be reopened. Each scholar is responsible for submitting all work on the scheduled due date.

Formatting Documents
Microsoft Word is the standard word processing tool used at PVAMU. If you are using other word processors, be sure to use the “save as” tool and save the document in either the Microsoft Word, Rich-Text, or plain text format.

Exam Policy
Missed mid-term or final exams cannot be made up unless permission is granted by the instructor of record prior to the exam or proper documentation is submitted.

Technology
All candidates should make sure they can always access eCourse. Make sure all passwords are updated before attempting any assignment or exam.

Communication
Course updates will also be sent through PVAMU eCourses -- be sure to check before attending class. Remind App 101 will also be used to communicate with candidates.

All e-mails should address the instructor with proper greetings and subject titles, use correct grammar and spelling, complete sentences, proper punctuation, and written in a respectful tone. Otherwise, no response may be warranted. E-mails will usually have a response within two (2) business days.

Tentative Course Calendar:
The following plan of action is to keep us on track; it may, however, require flexibility to suit the needs and interests of the candidates. Please be advised: The instructor has the right to modify this syllabus, without notice, due to emergencies or an expressed interest of the candidates to discuss topics in greater detail. It is in the best interest of each candidate to regularly attend class.

Caveat:
The schedule, procedures, contents of this syllabus and class assignments are subject to change at my discretion. If you have any questions or need assistance, please feel free to contact me.

University Rules and Procedures

Disability Statement (Also See Candidate Handbook):
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all Candidates with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact Disability Services, in Evans Hall, Room 317, or call 936-261-3585/3.

Academic Misconduct (See Candidate Handbook):
You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Candidate Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Candidates who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:
1. Cheating: deception in which a Candidate misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations.

2. Academic misconduct: tampering with grades or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of a scheduled test.

3. Fabrication: use of invented information or falsified research.
4. Plagiarism: unacknowledged quotation and/or paraphrase of someone else’s words, ideas, or data as one’s own in work submitted for credit. Failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting them as one’s own work also constitutes plagiarism.

Nonacademic Misconduct (See Candidate Handbook)
The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and Candidates to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, (2) the inability of other Candidates to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Candidates under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct (See Candidate Handbook): Sexual harassment of Candidates and employers at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Title IX Statement

It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of sex- or gender-based discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual assault or attempted sexual assault, we encourage you to report it. While you may talk to a faculty member about an incident of misconduct, the faculty member must report the basic facts of your experience to Ms. Alexia Taylor, PVAMU's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Title IX Coordinator is designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies and can assist you with understanding your options and connect you with on- and off-campus resources. Class Attendance Policy (See Catalog for Full Attendance Policy)
Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attending all classes supports full academic development of each learner whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video and/or internet.

Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a Candidate’s course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of “F”. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms. Each faculty member will include the University’s attendance policy in each course syllabus.

Candidate Academic Appeals Process
Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to Candidates rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where Candidates believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the Candidate has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.

Department of Health and Human Performance

Please be advised that cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated in the Department of Health and Human Performance. Please read, sign and date this form. Thank you, in advance, for your cooperation.

The Definition of Cheating

Cheating is defined as using, or supplying information that is not authorized by the instructor in taking an examination or completing assignments assigned by the instructor. Cheating is also turning in someone else’s work as that of your own.

The Definition of Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a unique form of cheating where a person turns in someone else’s work and represents it as being their own. This would include: 1. Purchasing term papers and turning them in as if they were original work. 2. Using a paper that had previously been turned in. 3. Copying passages verbatim from books, articles, etc. 4. Submitting material for grades in which the candidate has not done the work required.

Consequences of these actions are severe, ranging from failure of the assignment to failure of the course. Repeated offenses could even result in expulsion.
