Quiz Policy and Procedure
Following the course calendar, students will login to Canvas and take the scheduled quiz during the allowed time. You will be required to complete a quiz each Thursday on the following dates: June 9, 2022; June 16, 2022; June 23, 2022; and June 30, 2022. You will have 30 minutes to complete each quiz. You will have access to each quiz for one day only, until 11:59 pm the day of the quiz, to guarantee that all students have an opportunity to take a quiz, regardless of work schedules. Once the window has closed, a student will not be allowed to take the quiz unless there is a very strong university excusable reason, as outlined in the undergraduate catalog. Please plan your summer 2022 calendar accordingly. Each quiz will be multiple choice questions, with 10 questions worth one (1) point each, 10 points total. Quiz items will be based on materials you are required to learn, from the book chapters, supplemental readings, class lectures, class discussions, and important video contents. It is your responsibility to read the book chapters, supplements, and keep pace with the course materials, including watching videos that enhance content found in the book chapters.

Purchase the book immediately! Falling behind on the reading will destroy your chance of earning an “A” grade in the course. Quiz #1 will cover chapters 1 and 2, supplemental required reading, and video content. Quiz #2 will cover chapter 3, supplemental required readings, and video content. Quiz #3 will cover chapter 4, supplemental required readings, and video content. Quiz #4 will cover chapters 5 and 6, supplemental required readings, and video content.

Research Report Policy and Procedure

TO: All Business Communication 3330 students
FROM: Dr. Reginald L. Bell
RE: Research Report on Conflict Resolution: “Law” or “Negotiation” or “Arbitration” or “Mediation.”
DATE: June 6, 2022 (The Research Report on conflict resolution is due: Wednesday, June 29, 2022.)

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:
I. You will write a research report on any of the main topics of conflict resolution, covered in chapter 5 of the course textbook. Your paper will not exceed 5 pages. (This page limit include a references page, but the title page does not count as a page.)
II. The report must be typed and uses double spaced lines.
III. Your group must use one-inch margins all around. (Top, Bottom, Right, and Left).
IV. You must use Times New Roman—font style—size 12pt.
V. You must use Microsoft Word 2013 or a newer version.
VI. Your references list must include at least 5 source documents. All cited materials in the body of the report must be accounted for in the references section of your report.
VII. Paragraphs should be developed properly: topic sentence for each paragraph and the use of transitions when moving from one paragraph to the next. Unity, coherence, and emphasis are required for good writing, and for the total composition to be effective.
VIII. I will use a rubric to measure the quality of your report. Be sure and pay close attention to accuracy in sentence structure, paragraph development, coherence, appeal, grammar, punctuation, and spelling; they must all be correct, and your writing must reflect undergraduate level work.
IX. The central argument or conflict resolution theme of the report should be immediately recognizable and permeated throughout the manuscript, whether it is on law, mediation, arbitration or negotiation.
X. The report will have a title page; complete with author information. An abstract page is required on the title page; your abstract should be 75 to 100 words and it is a brief preview of the entire report.
XI. It must be submitted via Canvas on June 29, 2022, by 11:59pm.
XII. The Research Report has a value of 30 points.

Be sure your manuscript directly or indirectly answers the following two questions:

1. How does your theme scientifically enhance the audience’s understanding of the stated communication purpose?
2. How does your theme positively contribute to the resolution of a conflict in a business and industry situation?

Be sure that you use your time wisely. The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate to you the principles for written business communication follows many rules, and that mastering these rules give you transferable skills essential for your success in business. Remember that a persuasive argument requires a “logical brief” or “central thought” whether written or spoken. Get started right away. Late reports will not be accepted (unless your excuse is within policy of the Prairie View A&M University’s Graduate Catalog). Good luck!
Comprehensive Final Exam Policy and Procedure
On Monday, July 11, 2022, students will login to Canvas take the comprehensive final exam during the allowed time. You will have access to the final exam on July 11, 2022, all day, to assure that all students have an opportunity to take the comprehensive final exam, regardless of work schedules. Once the window has closed, a student will not be allowed to take the final unless there is a university excusable reason, as outlined in the undergraduate catalog. The final will include a battery of 30 multiple choice questions worth one (1) point each, 30 points total. You will have two (2) full hours to complete the comprehensive final exam. Questions will assess your mastery of content from book chapters, supplemental readings, and video content.

Student Support and Success
Each MTWR for BCOM-P01, from 1:00 pm until 3:20 pm, I will teach class face-to-face. Your attendance is required. I will be available also through email: rlbell@pvamu.edu to answer questions and will also use mass email to communicate with all students in the course, periodically. You are expected to keep up with the reading. There are enough instructional videos incorporated into the course, when coupled with the contents of the book chapters, and supplemental readings, that all students will be able to master the contents of the course. The course, therefore, is designed to be a self-paced reading intensive course with your learning assessed via four (4) quizzes, one (1) research report on conflict resolution, and one (1) comprehensive final exam. The PowerPoint for six chapters is available in Canvas, for each of the Modules. I reserve the option to add bonus assignments periodically throughout the course; however, bonus points will not exceed five (5) points, if offered.

University Rules and Procedures

Academic Misconduct (See Student Planner)
You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Planner, especially the section on academic misconduct (see University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity). Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures. As listed in the PVAMU Undergraduate Catalog, Graduate Catalog, and the Student Planner, the following are examples of prohibited conduct. This list is not designed to be all-inclusive or exhaustive. In addition to academic sanctions, any student found to have committed or to have attempted to commit the following academic misconduct may also be subject to disciplinary review and action as outlined in the PVAMU Student Planner.

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:

1. Cheating: Deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not learned, giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. Examples: unauthorized use of notes for a test; using a “cheat sheet” on a quiz or exam; any alteration made on a graded test or exam which is then resubmitted to the teacher.

2. Plagiarism: Careless or deliberate use of the work or the ideas of another; representation of another’s work, words, ideas, or data as your own without permission or appropriate acknowledgment. Examples: copying another’s paper or answers, failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting or representing it as your own; submitting an assignment which has been partially or wholly done by another and claiming it as yours; not properly acknowledging a source which has been summarized or paraphrased in your work; failure to acknowledge the use of another’s words with quotation marks.

3. Multiple Submission: Submission of work from one course to satisfy a requirement in another course without explicit permission. Example: using a paper prepared and graded for credit in one course to fulfill a requirement and receive credit in a different course.

4. Conspiracy: Agreeing with one or more persons to commit an act of academic/scholastic dishonesty.

5. Fabrication of Information/Forgery: Use or submission of contrived, invented, forged, or altered information in any assignment, laboratory exercise, or test; tampering with or production of a counterfeit document, particularly documents which make up the student’s academic record. Examples: making up a source or citing nonexistent publication or article; representing made up data as real for an experiment in a science laboratory class; forging a change of grade or student withdrawal record; falsifying any document related to a student academic exercise.

Nonacademic Misconduct (See Student Planner)
The University respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class, or (2) the ability of students to benefit from the instructional program, or (3) the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Office for Student Conduct under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct
Sexual harassment of students and employees at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating the university’s sexual harassment policy will be subject to disciplinary action. In accordance with the Texas A&M University System guidelines, your instructor is obligated to report to the Office of Title IX Compliance (titleixteam@pvamu.edu) any instance of sexual misconduct involving a student, which includes sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, and sexual harassment, about which the instructor becomes aware during this course through writing, discussion, or personal disclosure. The faculty and staff of PVAMU actively strive to provide a learning, working, and living environment that promotes respect that is free from sexual misconduct, discrimination, and all forms of violence. If students, faculty, or staff would like assistance, or have questions, they may contact the Title IX Coordinator at 936-261-2144 or titleixteam@pvamu.edu. More information can be found at the Title IX Webpage including confidential resources available on campus.

Pregnancy, Pregnancy-related, and Parenting Accommodations
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination, which includes discrimination based on pregnancy, marital status, or parental status. Students seeking accommodations related to pregnancy, pregnancy-related condition, or parenting (reasonably immediate postpartum period) are encouraged to contact Student Disability Services or the Dean of Students’ Office for additional information and to request accommodations. More information can be found at this webpage.

Non-Discrimination Statement
Prairie View A&M University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity in its programs and activities. The University is committed to supporting students and complying with the Texas A&M University System non-discrimination policy. It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of discrimination or harassment, we encourage you to report it. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Director of Equal Opportunity & Diversity has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies, and can be reached at Harrington Science Building, Suite 109 or by phone 936-261-1744 or 1792.

Class Attendance Policy (See Catalog for Full Attendance Policy)
Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attending all classes supports full academic development of each learner whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video and/or internet. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student’s course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of “F”. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms. Each faculty member will include the University’s attendance policy in each course syllabus.

Student Academic Appeals Process
Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor’s assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the University Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint. Students can file Academic Complaints and/or Grade Appeals at this webpage.

- Windows or Mac OS
- Video conferencing software

Netiquette (online etiquette)

Students are expected to participate in all discussions and virtual classroom chats as directed. Students are to be respectful and courteous to others on discussions boards. Foul or abusive language will not be tolerated. Do not use ALL CAPS for communicating to others AS IT CAN BE INTERPRETED AS YELLING. Avoid slang terms such as “wassup?” and texting abbreviations such as “u” instead of “you.” Limit and possibly avoid the use of emoticons. Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm as tone is sometimes lost in an email or discussion post and the message might be taken seriously or sound offensive.

Video Conferencing Etiquette

When using Zoom, WebEx or other video conferencing tools, confirm the visible area is tidy, clear of background clutter, inappropriate or offensive posters, and other distractions. Ensure you dress appropriately and avoid using high traffic or noisy areas. Stay muted when you are not speaking and avoid eating/drinking during session. Before class session begins, test audio, video and lighting to alleviate technology issues.

Technical Support

Students should go to the Password Reset Tool if they have password issues. The page will provide instructions for resetting passwords and contact information if login issues persist. For other technical questions regarding Canvas, call the Center for Instructional Innovation and Technology Services (CIITS) at 936-261-3283 or email ciits@pvamu.edu.

Communication Expectations and Standards

Emails or discussion postings will receive a response from the instructor, usually in less than 48 hours. Urgent emails should be marked as such. Check regularly for responses.

Discussion Requirement

Online courses often require minimal to no face-to-face meetings. However, conversations about the readings, lectures, materials, and other aspects of the course can take place in a seminar fashion. This will be accomplished by the use of the discussion board. The exact use of discussion will be determined by the instructor.
It is strongly suggested that students type their discussion postings in a word processing application such as Word and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) If for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, copy and paste to the discussion board.
