Detailed Description of Major Assignments:

MACROECONOMIC PAPER: Global Entrepreneurship

Description: The ongoing globalization has connected economic agents within and across countries. Both demanders and suppliers have access to markets beyond their geographic locations. Accordingly, scholars have defined international entrepreneurship as 1) the ability and willingness to establish and manage international supply chain systems, 2) the ability to penetrate unfamiliar or familiar international markets, 3) the ability to navigate through different country-specific legal systems, 4) partnering with foreign businesses. Access to broader markets (domestic and foreign) will enhance economic growth and thereafter international trade.

You are required to select a hypothetic company, within an identified industry, and identify market opportunities in international markets (At least 2 countries should be identified). For your selected company (within a specific industry), list and elaborate on the business, strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats, the company’s owner should be aware of if they will operate in a foreign country or a foreign business that will be established in United States.

Special instructions: From 3 to 4 pages (excluding the cover page, reference list, and appendix) Maximum 4 pages, minimum 3 pages, line spacing (1.5 pts). Write in plain English, use in-text citations, and any “Table or Figure” should be placed in the appendix. Plagiarism should be avoided, and submission must be done through Turnitin.

Academic Dishonesty Warning: Students who are caught providing exam answers to another student, or looking at another student’s exam, or copying answers from another person on an exam, or discussing an exam with another person (except for me) during the exam period, or receiving aid on the exam from any other person during the exam period, will be given an F grade for the semester and reported to the Management & Marketing Department Head for further actions.

Course Procedures
All exams will be given in class during the regularly scheduled class sessions. The time and date of the final exam will be announced as soon as the University has made that information available. Bring a simple calculator to each exam. The use of programmable calculators and/or the calculator function on cellular phones is not permitted during exams. There will be no make-up exams. Exams will consist of both multiple-choice and essay questions.

All known conflicts should be drawn to my attention immediately. Failure to take any exam at the scheduled time may result in a score of zero for that exam. If you have an approved (university accepted) excuse, your final exam score may replace the missed exam score. If you miss an exam and fail to present your excuse the very next time you attend class, your excuse will not be accepted and you will receive a zero. You may not leave the classroom during an exam! If you are tardy for an exam, you will not be seated for that exam if a student has completed the exam and has left the classroom, and you will receive a zero.

Rolls will be taken at the beginning of every class period. In general, excessive absences, excused or unexcused, will affect your grade. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day you are officially registered in this class. Only unexcused absences will reduce your attendance (bonus) grade. Points will be deducted from the attendance points for every unexcused absence and two (2) points for coming late or leaving the class before end of period. You must provide a University accepted excuse to have your absence excused. This written excuse must be presented on the very first day you return to class after an absence. Late excuses will not be accepted.

ATTENTION: The classroom door will be closed and locked ten minutes from the time class starts. There is five minutes “grace period.” If you arrive after the classroom door is locked, you have missed your opportunity to attend the class, and you will lose four attendance points. Do not knock, pound, or kick the door, or in any way attempt to gain attention or entry into the classroom. You will not be admitted if you are late for the class. Regardless of attendance, it is ultimately your responsibility to be aware of all announcements made in class on posted eCourse and materials discussed in class. You are responsible for getting notes covering missed material; I am NOT a source of notes. Furthermore, leaving class before class is dismissed is not acceptable. If you have a legitimate reason for leaving class early, please bring it to my attention prior to the start of that day’s lecture.

If there should be extra-credit assignments during the course of the semester, they must be turned in at the beginning of class on the day they are due. If you are absent, you cannot make up extra-credit assignments. Turning in extra-credit assignments early is always acceptable.

Your final class grade is your FINAL grade. I do not curve your final class grade. If your final class grade is 79.4%, you will receive a C for the semester. Do not waste your time or mine by asking me what you can do to make a better grade at the end of the term. I do not assign extra credit to individual students. However, if you suspect that I have made a clerical error in calculating and/or recording your final grade, please feel free to bring this to my attention as soon as possible and I will gladly recalculate your grade.

• Grading is usually a major area of concern for students. I am here to help you learn economics. Remember, I love economics and want to share that passion with you. I get no satisfaction from trying to fail students or lower their GPAs. However, that doesn’t mean I accept shoddy work or reward irresponsibility. If you are having trouble, do not wait until near the end of the semester to let me know! At that point there is little either of us can do to rescue your grade (I will not assign extra credit). Call, email, drop by my office, do something to let me help you! As soon as possible!

Missed exam: Because excused absences sometimes occur, a student who misses 1 exam may have the missed exam score replaced by the final exam percentage score. A student who misses exam(s) without official excuse will receive a zero score for the exam(s). There are no exceptions to this rule.

Missed final exam: A student who misses the final exam will receive a zero score, except in extremely rare cases of documented dire personal need, in which case the student may qualify to receive an “incomplete” grade for the semester.

What if I have another University-sanctioned event the day of the exam?
You must notify me via email at least two weeks before the exam. I may ask for documentation. A conflict exam will be offered. A fraternity or sorority event is not considered an official University event.

What if I have some other event the day of the exam, like concert tickets, a plane ticket or a Greek event?
Take a different instructor this semester or take this class another semester. You WILL NOT be allowed to take the exam at another time.

What if I become ill or an emergency occurs the day of the exam?
Notify me as soon as possible, with official documentation. The exam will be waived and the weight will be added to the final.

What if I accidentally or on purpose miss the exam?
You will get a 0 on the exam and this score cannot be replaced by a high grade on the final.

Self-Discipline: It is important to adhere to the course schedule and not fall behind on reading or practice problems. You should devote 6-12 hours per week on this course, attending class, reading the assigned textbook chapters/handouts, doing practice problems, doing unassigned problems from the textbook for your own use, doing practice exams, and taking exams. If you fail to devote 6-12 hours per week on these things then you should not be surprised to receive a D or an F for your semester grade.

University Rules and Procedures

Academic Misconduct
Academic dishonesty is defined as any form of cheating or dishonesty that has the effect or intent of interfering with any academic exercise or fair evaluation of a student's performance. The college faculty can provide additional information, particularly related to a specific course, laboratory, or assignment.

You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with the University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity, which can be found on the Academic Integrity webpage. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures. As listed in the University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity, the University Online Catalog, and the Student Code of Conduct, the following are examples of prohibited conduct. This list is not designed to be all-inclusive or exhaustive. In addition to academic sanctions, any student found to have committed academic misconduct that is also a violation of criminal law may also be subject to disciplinary review and action by the Office of Student Conduct (as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct).

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:

1. Cheating: Deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not learned, giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. Examples: unauthorized use of notes for a test; using a "cheat sheet" on a quiz or exam; any alteration made on a graded test or exam which is then resubmitted to the teacher;

2. Plagiarism: Careless or deliberate use of the work or the ideas of another; representation of another’s work, words, ideas, or data as your own without permission or appropriate acknowledgment. Examples: copying another's paper or answers, failure to identify information or essays from the internet and submitting or representing it as your own; submitting an assignment which has been partially or wholly done by another and claiming it as yours; not properly acknowledging a source which has been summarized or paraphrased in your work; failure to acknowledge the use of another's words with quotation marks;

3. Collusion: When more than one student or person contributes to a piece of work that is submitted as the work of an individual;

4. Conspiracy: Agreeing with one or more persons to commit an act of academic/scholastic dishonesty; and
5. Multiple Submission: Submission of work from one course to satisfy a requirement in another course without explicit permission. Example: using a paper prepared and graded for credit in one course to fulfill a requirement and receive credit in a different course.

Nonacademic Misconduct
The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. The Office of Student Conduct will adjudicate such incidents under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct
Sexual harassment of students and employees at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating the university's sexual harassment policy will be subject to disciplinary action. In accordance with the Texas A&M University System guidelines, your instructor is obligated to report to the Office of Title IX Compliance (titleixteam@pvamu.edu) any instance of sexual misconduct involving a student, which includes sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, and sexual harassment, about which the instructor becomes aware during this course through writing, discussion, or personal disclosure. The faculty and staff of PVAMU actively strive to provide a learning, working, and living environment that promotes respect that is free from sexual misconduct, discrimination, and all forms of violence. If students, faculty, or staff would like assistance or have questions, they may contact the Title IX Coordinator at 936-261-2144 or titleixteam@pvamu.edu. More information can be found at www.pvamu.edu/titleix, including confidential resources available on campus.

Pregnancy, Pregnancy-related, and Parenting Accommodations
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination, which includes discrimination based on pregnancy, marital status, or parental status. Students seeking accommodations related to pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, or parenting (reasonably immediate postpartum period) are encouraged to contact Student Disability Services or the Dean of Students' Office for additional information and to request accommodations.

Non-Discrimination Statement
Prairie View A&M University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity in its programs and activities. The University is committed to supporting students and complying with The Texas A&M University System non-discrimination policy. It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of discrimination or harassment, we encourage you to report it. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Director of Equal Opportunity & Diversity has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies and can be reached at Harrington Science Building, Suite 109 or by phone at 936-261-1744 or 1792.

Class Attendance Policy (See the University Online Catalog for Full Attendance Policy)
Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attending all classes supports the full academic development of each learner, whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video and/or the internet. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student's course grade being reduced or in the assignment of a grade of "F." Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms. Each faculty member will include the University's attendance policy in each course syllabus.

Student Academic Appeals Process
Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rest with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the University Online Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.

Netiquette (online etiquette)

Students are expected to participate in all discussions and virtual classroom chats as directed. Students are to be respectful and courteous to others on discussion boards. Foul or abusive language will not be tolerated. Do not use ALL CAPS for communicating to others AS IT CAN BE INTERPRETED AS YELLING. Avoid slang terms such as "wassup?" and texting abbreviations such as "u" instead of "you." Limit and possibly avoid the use of emoticons. Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm as tone is sometimes lost in an email or discussion post, and the message might be taken seriously or sound offensive.

Video Conferencing Etiquette

When using Zoom, WebEx, or other video conferencing tools, confirm the visible area is tidy, clear of background clutter, inappropriate or offensive posters, and other distractions. Ensure you dress appropriately and avoid using high traffic or noisy areas. Stay muted when you are not speaking and avoid eating/drinking during the session. Before the class session begins, test audio, video, and lighting to alleviate technology issues.

Technical Support

Students should go to https://mypassword.pvamu.edu/ if they have password issues. The page will provide instructions for resetting passwords and contact information if login issues persist. For other technical questions regarding eCourses, call the Center for Instructional Innovation and Technology Services at 936-261-3283 or email ciits@pvamu.edu.

Communication Expectations and Standards

Emails or discussion postings will receive a response from the instructor, usually in less than 48 hours. Urgent emails should be marked as such. Check regularly for responses.

Discussion Requirement

Online courses often require minimal to no face-to-face meetings. However, conversations about the readings, lectures, materials, and other aspects of the course can occur in a seminar fashion. The use of the discussion board will accomplish this. The instructor will determine the exact use of discussion boards.

It is strongly suggested that students type their discussion postings in a word processing application such as Word and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) If for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, copy and paste to the discussion board.

COVID-19 Campus Safety Measures

To promote public safety and protect students, faculty, and staff during the coronavirus pandemic, PVAMU has adopted policies and practices to limit virus transmission.

- Self-monitoring - Students should follow CDC recommendations for self-monitoring. Students who have a fever or exhibit symptoms of COVID-19 should participate in class remotely and should not participate in face-to-face instruction.

- Face Coverings - Face coverings (cloth face covering, surgical mask, etc.) are recommended in classrooms, teaching laboratories, common spaces such as lobbies and hallways, public study spaces, libraries, academic resource, and support offices, and outdoor spaces where 6 feet of physical distancing is challenging to maintain reliably.

- Physical Distancing - Physical distancing should be maintained between students, instructors, and others in course and course-related activities where possible.

Personal Illness and Quarantine - Students required to quarantine are to participate in courses and course-related activities remotely and must not attend face-to-face course activities. Students should notify their instructors of the quarantine requirement. Students under quarantine are expected to participate in courses and complete graded work unless they have symptoms that are too severe to participate in course activities. Students experiencing personal injury or illness that is too severe for the student to attend class qualify for an excused absence. To receive an excused absence, students must provide appropriate documentation to the Office for Student Conduct, studentconduct@pvamu.edu

Student Academic Appeals Process

Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.
