

Curriculum Vitae

Faculty Name: Esther T. Ogunjimi, Ph.D., MSW, LCSW-S

Work Address: P.O. Box 519; MS 1060
Prairie View, TX 77446

Position Title: Assistant Professor

Office Location: W.R. Banks Rm 214

Location:

Office Phone: 936-261-1675

Email Address: etogunjimi@pvamu.edu

| Education: | Degree and Area of Study | Institution Name | Degree Date |
|------------|---|--------------------------------|-------------|
| | Ph.D. Health Services(Community Health) | Walden University | Nov. 2017 |
| | MSW Social Work | University of Texas, Arlington | August 2005 |
| | BSW- Social Work | Texas Southern University | May 2004 |

| Teaching Experience | Position Title | Institution Name | Position Dates |
|---------------------|--|-----------------------------|----------------|
| | Asst. Professor/interim Field Director | Prairie View A&M University | 2021-present |
| | Asst. Professor/Field Coordinator | Prairie View A&M University | 2017-2021 |

Professional Publications

Ogunjimi, E. T. (2017). Risk perception of HIV infection among the Nigerian African-immigrant population in Houston, Texas. ProQuest Dissertation & Theses Global (1972443271). (ProQuest: Online)

Ogunjimi, E. T. (2018). Non-Refugee African Immigrants: Nigerians, the Hidden population in the study of HIV Infection in Houston, Texas. Global Journal of Multidisciplinary Research, 2(1), 4-17.

Ogunjimi, E.T. & de Carvalho, J. (2020) A Qualitative Analysis of HIV Risk Perception among Africa-Immigrants in the United States. International Journal of Education and Social Science 7(2), 1-11

Additional Training/Skills

- Licensed Clinical Social Worker
- Board Certified Social Worker Supervisor
- Introduction to Teaching Online (CANVAS)
- Getting Ready for Quality Matters Workshop (GRQM) (CAVAS)