

PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY

Curriculum Vitae [For HB 2504 Website]

Name	Michael Nojeim, Ph.D.	Work Address:	PO Box 519; MS 2203, Prairie View, TX 77466
Position Title	Professor and Program Coordinator, Political Science
Office	Woolfolk 303
Office Phone	936-261-3213
Email	mjnojeim@pvamu.edu
Education	Degree and Area of Study	Institution Name	Degree Date
	Ph.D. International Relations	American University	1993
	M.A. International Affairs	American University	1987
	B.S. Agricultural Economics	Cornell University	1982
Academic Experience	Position and Title	Institution Name	Position Dates
	Author-Editor, SACS Accreditation Team	PVAMU	2018 – present
	Professor/Program Coordinator	PVAMU	2010 – present
	Associate Professor	PVAMU	2004 – 2010
	Associate/Assistant Professor	Ohio University	1994 – 2004
	Adjunct Instructor	Ohio University	2004 – present
	Adjunct Instructor	Lonestar College	2018 – present
	Fellow & Adjunct Instructor	American University	1990 – 1994
Professional Publications	“Unaccompanied Minors at the Border: Opinions of Latino Adults.” (Second co-author after Myrna Cintron). Journal of Family Strengths 22, Iss. 1 (2023): 1 – 23.
	“Removing the Excuse: Using Free Course Materials to Improve Student Success in General Studies Courses.” (third co-author after Megan Collins and Nathan Mitchell). Journal of Higher Education Theory and Practice (October, 2020).
	“Study and Research in the Discipline of Political Science,” in Political Science for the Curious: Why Study Political Science? Edited by Kishor Vaidya, 2015.
	“Gandhi and the Struggle for Racial Justice in the United States.” International Journal of Gandhi Studies , 2012.
	Down that Road: A 135-Year Pictorial History of Prairie View A&M University, with Frank Jackson, (Donner, 2011).
	Days of Decision: Turning Points in U.S. Foreign Policy, with David P. Kilroy, (Potomac Books, 2011).
	“King’s Nonviolent Resistance Campaigns,” in Ronald E. Goodwin, Prophet, Warrior, And Legend: Selections Exploring the Real Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (2011).
	“Gandhi’s Impact on the American Civil Rights Movement,” Indian Perspectives , January-March 2008.
	“U.S. Foreign Policy and the Opening to Communist China,” in Living Democracy (Custom Edition for Prairie View A&amp;M University) by Daniel M. Shea, et. al., Pearson Custom Publishing, 2007.
	“A Gandhian Blueprint for Nonviolent Change,” Peace &amp; Change , October 2007.

	"Gandhi and King: A Comparison," International Third World Studies Journal and Review 16 (2005): 25-36. Gandhi and King: The Power of Nonviolent Resistance (Westport, CT: Praeger: 2004).
Selected Service	Program Coordinator of Political Science, 2008 – present
	Chair, University Core Curriculum Advisory Committee, 2020 – present
	Member, Student Conduct Board, 2014 – present
	Chair, Division Assessment Committee, 2012 – present
	Mentor, Junior Faculty Program, 2018 – present
	Co-Chair, College Faculty Tenure/Promotion Manual Committee 2021 – 2022
	Member, University Planning Committee for April Planning Summit, 2019 – 2020
	Member, University Committee on the Performance Evaluation Instrument 2018 – 2019
	Chair, University Evidentiary Hearing Committee, 2019
	Chair, Political Science Endowed Professor Search Committee, 2018
	Vice Speaker, Faculty Senate 2017 – 2018
	Additional Skills
30+ years experience teaching web-based and web-assisted courses.
Proficient in Blackboard, Canvas, D2L/Brightspace, and Moodle
Proficient in MS Office Suite: Excel, PowerPoint, Word
Proficient in PC and Mac operations.
Intermediate level spoken and written Arabic.

#