

MEDIA ALERT:

PVAMU TO HOST A NATIONAL VACCINE TOWN HALL, TUESDAY, MAY 4

The "HBCUs Against COVID" virtual session will tackle the realities students and their communities are facing because of the pandemic.

PRAIRIE VIEW, Texas (May 3, 2021) – The Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) Health Services will host a medical-focused forum for students about the impact the coronavirus is having on them and the minority community. The office has designated Tuesday, May 4, 2021, as the "Historically Black Colleges/ Universities COVID Awareness and Resilience Day" or HBCU-CARD.

The goal for the vaccine town hall to help HBCU students drive awareness on their campuses and surrounding communities about steps to protect and safeguard their health from COVID-19. #HBCUsAgainstCOVID" is the hashtag for the initiative.
